Naturalist Series: Backyard Beauties: Attracting Uncommon Birds to the Home Habitat

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24 • 6:30 P.M. – 7:30 P.M
SPEAKER: Judy Semroc, Western Reserve Land Conservancy

This presentation will discuss various species of uncommon birds that with a little habitat enhancement, can be enticed to nest and frequently visit the home habitat. By accommodating their preferences for nesting sites, food sources, water availability, and habitat cover, these species will treat you to beautiful songs, intriguing behavior, and the winsome behavior of their young.
