Beautiful and Bouncing Back: The
Return of the Bald Eagle

THURSDAY, MARCH 24 • 6:30 P.M.

SPEAKER: Jamey Emmert, Wildlife Communications Specialist, Ohio Division of Wildlife

Our national symbol displays many outstanding characteristics - exceptional vision, a striking appearance, and a commanding presence. Sadly, by the latter half of the 20th century, the bald eagle was classified as an endangered species. Through the diligent efforts of wildlife biologists and a concerned public, the bald eagle population is recovering at an astonishing rate. Join Jamey Emmert from the Ohio Division of Wildlife to learn more about the rise, the fall, and return of the bald eagle.
