Pam Bennett is the OSU Extension State Master Gardener Volunteer Program Director and Professor. Pam specializes in herbaceous ornamental plant trials and presents programs on annuals and perennials as well as other landscape topics locally, statewide, and nationally. She is a Clark County Park District Commissioner and a Board member of the Hartman Rock Garden and The Abilities Connection. Pam is the co-author of an award-winning book, Garden-pedia, An A-to-Z Guide to Gardening Terms.

Laura Deeter is a dynamo teacher and garden expert extraordinaire! She is a horticultural science and landscape horticulture professor at the Agriculture Technical Institute at Ohio State University. Her focus areas are landscape design and trouble shooting, plant identification, and landscape maintenance. She describes herself as a flamingo collector, plant geek, animal lover, gaming guru and basically all around goofy geek! She creates fun with plants that will help you make everything you do more creative!
